Just a Moment

with Pastor Fred

Many Christians suffer with unnecessary fears about sharing their faith. Much of the time the biggest problem is simply moving a conversation from small talk to “big” talk, the biggest subject of all—the Gospel. A friend sent me an article by Midwestern Baptist Seminary with a list of questions that can help us.

Questions to Ask to Turn a Conversation Toward the Gospel

1. When you die, if God says to you, “Why should I let you into heaven?” - what would you say? Are you interested in what the Bible says about your answer?
2. If you were to die tonight, where do you think you would spend eternity? Why? Are you interested in what the Bible says about this?
3. Do you think much about spiritual things?
4. How is God involved in your life?
5. How important is your faith to you?
6. What has been your most meaningful spiritual experience?
7. Do you find that your religious heritage answers your questions about life?
8. Do you have any kind of spiritual beliefs? If what you believe were not true, would you want to know it? Well, the Bible says . . .
9. To you, who is Jesus?
10. I often like to pray for people I meet; how can I pray for you?

THE LORD'S DAY

October 12, 2025

We need the gathering of the church to remind us again that because of grace, we live in the arms of the one and only completely holy and perfect loving Father.

Philosophy of Worship

We believe music is a means to an end, not the end itself. Music is not the goal; worship is the goal.
