Just a Moment

with Pastor Fred

One of the holiest of celebrations for Christians occurs in 2 weeks. Easter commemorates the resurrection of Jesus. It is also a time where unbelievers are more open to come to church. We want to take advantage of that cultural tendency. Please use the enclosed card to invite someone to breakfast April 5 and to our Easter service. It’s really quite simple: a neighbor, a friend, a co-worker, a family member. Remember, we’re not trying to pull people from another Bible-teaching church. Our focus is on believers who don’t attend church or those who haven’t yet professed faith in Christ.

Statistics reveal more people come to church by personal invitation than any other method. Everyone has a circle of people who need Christ. You can be a strategic part of helping them come to the Lord. Andrew, Peter’s brother, was responsible for introducing the apostle to Christ. Please use this card. Don’t throw it away. Just say, “I’d like to invite you to be my guest at church on Easter – breakfast and our service.”

Please sign up to bring a dish for the breakfast. For those of us who call HBC home, remember that Sunday our auditorium will be filled with guests – you and I are the hosts. Greet folks. Smile. You take the role of speaking first. Someone who recently visited our service told me HBC was the friendliest church he had encountered in ages. Thank you. So, let us continue to demonstrate that motto we’ve used here before – “You Belong Here.”
