Just a Moment

with Pastor Fred

John Paton was a missionary to the New Hebrides. In 1856 he resolved to preach the Gospel to the unreached tribes of these South Pacific islands. A church member warned him, "You'll be eaten by cannibals!" Paton responded: "Your own prospect is soon to be laid in the grave, there to be eaten by worms; I confess to you, that if I can but live and die serving and honoring the Lord Jesus, it will make no difference to me whether I am eaten by cannibals or by worms; and in the Great Day my resurrection body will arise as fair as yours in the likeness of our risen Redeemer."

Today we welcome our missionaries, Ryan and Abigail deRoos – along with their two daughters, Sydney and Lydia. They faithfully serve Christ in the Philippines where Ryan flies a helicopter helping church planters with necessary supplies and resources. Greet them please. HBC has a special place for they were members here during training.

By the way, Paton was never eaten by cannibals. He died at the age of 82 in 1907. His sacrifice saw many saved and churches planted throughout the islands. I love Revelation 7 - After this I looked and there before me was a great multitude that no one could count, from every nation, tribe, people and language, standing before the throne and in front of the Lamb ... they cried out in a loud voice: Salvation belongs to our God, who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb.

Abigail and her mother have a custom when saying goodbye. "He's worth it." And he is.

Help me live boldly for you, for you did not give me a spirit of timidity but a spirit of love and power and inward strength. Don't let me ever be ashamed of bearing witness about our Lord. Let me take my share of suffering for the gospel and rely on your power. In the name and power of Jesus I pray.
